JOINT CIRCULAR NO. 86

Dear Sir/Madam

This circular provides guidance on the role which police staff, as private citizens, can play in the forthcoming elections on 5 May and 23 June 2016.

Forces are advised not to limit the role that individual police staff can play in the elections for:

- Police and Crime Commissioners;
- Local Government;
- Mayors for London, Bristol, Liverpool and Salford,
- National Assembly for Wales;
- European Referendum.

Staff should not be prohibited from campaigning for, or supporting, particular candidates in these elections. The existing police regulation only applies to police officers who are restricted from such political activity.

Forces should expect police staff to remain entirely politically neutral in their approach to the elections when acting in their official capacity at work. However, this approach should not be extended to political activity in the member of staff's own free time, unless under politically restricted roles covered by the Local Government & Housing Act 1989.

While police staff are free to be members of political parties and to be active in those parties as private citizens, Forces should be made aware that PSC circular 39, (9 February 2006), endorses the ACPO (NPCC) restriction on, and disciplinary consequences of, any member of police staff being an active member of the BNP,

National Front or Combat 18. Active campaign work on behalf of an election candidate from one of these organisations would therefore render a member of police staff liable to disciplinary action.

Yours sincerely

Sarah Messenger
